Mrs. John Gary Brooks

Smoak, Clark are wed

The marriage of Miss Mary Elizabeth Smoak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen Smoak of Appomattox County, to Mark Morgan Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Irwin Clark, III of Fleets Bay Neck, Kilmarnock, took place on Saturday, September 5, at the home of the bride's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Flexmer Chase.

The double ring ceremony was conducted according to the form of Solemnization of Matrimony, Episcopal Book of Common Prayer, by Chaplain Frank F. Smart, Jr. on the lawn overlooking Dymer Creek.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length Victorian dress of white cotton batiste trimmed with eyelet embroidery and deep tucking on the skirt. The high neckline and long sleeves were edged with French net. She wore sprays of baby's breath in her hair and carried a small arrangement of white roses, baby's breath, and rosemary centered on an heirloom prayer book.

Miss Julia Townley Smoak was her sister's honor attendant. She wore an ankle length Victorian skirt and blouse of white cotton trimmed with hand crocheted lace and accented at the waistline by a sash of pink moire ribbon. She carried a nosegay of wildflowers, herbs and baby's breath surrounding a pink rosebud.

Bridesmaids were Edith Clere Smoak, sister of the bride, and Cameron Carter Clark, sister of the groom. They wore ankle length Victorian skirts and blouses of white cotton trimmed with eyelet embroidery and tucking, accented at the waistline by sashes of pink moire ribbon. They carried nosegays identical to the honor attendant.

Mr. Clark served as his son's best man. Groomsmen were Charles Irwin Clark of Richmond, brother of the groom, and Marion Ryvvers Wright of Memphis, Tennessee.

Also attending the bride and groom were Misses Amanda Carter and Martha Susan Chase of White Stone, and Miss Jane Page Pembroke of Richmond, cousins of the bride. Miss Susan Myers Daley of Fredericksburg, Miss Jil D'Ann Garcia of Burke, Mr. and Mrs. David Brooks Gilliam of Pamplin, Miss Kristin Lynn Liles of Ft. Hood, Texas, Miss Loretta Lynn Lettner of Williamsburg, and Miss Elizabeth Pelham Stuart of Ft. Eustis; Mr. Preston Paul Campbell of Fredricksburg, Mr. Peter Arell Brown Hobblitzel of Owings Mills, Maryland, Mr. Gary David Mason, of Reston, Mr. Denis Joseph McCarthy of Sterling, Mr. Richard Lee Ware of Williamsburg, Mr. David Stewart Williams of Sunnybank, and Mr. Donald Wilson Thornhill of Appomattox.

Music was provided by Bob Zentz with the hammer dulcimer and other instruments.

A reception was held on the lawn following the ceremony.

Mrs. David S. Williams, cousin of the bride, was mistress of ceremonies, assisted by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Flexmer Chase, Jr. Serving at the reception were Misses Sally Pope Smithson and Cindy Lou Johnston, both of Kilmarnock.

Pre-nuptial entertaining for the bridal couple included a Daiquiri party given in July by Miss Cindy Johnston and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mandley R. Johnston, at their home on Dymer Creek. A dinner party was given in August by Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Pollard at their home on Mosquito Creek and Mrs. Thomas Thompson was hostess at a luncheon for the bride at her home in Afton. Other luncheons were given in September by Mrs. Paul W. Jenkins and Mrs. Eugene S. Smithson at the Smithson home on Indian Creek and by Mrs. William C. Chase and Mrs. C. Jackson Simmons at the Simmons home in Irvington. On September fourth a rehearsal buffet was given by the groom's parents at their home, "Waterview". A wedding brunch was given at "The Bell Tower", Irvington, by Mr. and Mrs. Franklin P. McGinnes and Mr. and Mrs. David W. Cheek.

The couple will make their home in Marietta, Georgia where the groom is employed by the Reliance Insurance Company.

Lynda J. Robb

Reception slated for Robb

By FRANCES H. PAULETTE

A reception for Lynda J Robb, wife of Virginia's Lt. Governor, will be held on Sunday, September 20 from two o'clock in the afternoon until five o'clock.

Lynda was born on March 19, 1944 in Washington, D. C. and as the daughter of the prominent public official traveled a great deal. She attended both private and public schools in Texas and in Washington. She graudated from the University of Texas in 1966 with honors and was awarded a Bachelor of Arts degree in History.

A love of history and writing coupled with her experiences as the daughter of a Congressman, Senator, Vice-President, and President, made a career in writing the obvious choice. Following graduation from college she worked as staff writer for the McCalls magazine until 1968. Since 1970, she has served as a contributing editor to the Ladies Home Journal.

Lynda married Marine Captain Charles S. (Chuck) Robb on December 9, 1967 in our nation's White House. They are the parents of three daughters: Lucinda Desha (Cindy), Catherine Lewis (Cathy) and Jennifer Wickliffe.

Lynda, who is an energetic volunteer, serves on various committees and boards. Her most rewarding activity is working with over 40 Reading Is FUNdamental programs in the State of Virginia. She travels throughout the state as a member of RIF's National Advisory Board, participating in book distributions to young readers and is active in fund raising programs for RIF activities.

In keeping with her long-time interest in the arts and historic preservation, Lynda presently serves on the Board of Virginia Center for the Creative Arts at Sweet Briar College and on the Board of the National Home Library Foundation, the National Board of "Honor American Day", the Pope-Leighey House Council, the Northern Virginia Board of Reading is FUNdamental and is currently serving as Honorary Chairman of the Virginia Easter Seal Society.

Since her husband's election to the office of Lieutenant Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, Lynda successfully meets the demands of family and personal interests with those placed on her as the wife of a prominent Virginia official.

The women of Appomattox County and surrounding areas are cordially invited to attend the reception and meet Mrs. Robb.

Scouts plan registration

Appomattox Cub Scout #546 will hold a registration night on Thursday, September 17 at 7:00 p.m. at the Appomattox Elementary School Auditorium.

Boys can join if they are 8 years old, or 7 and have completed the second grade.

The Cub Scout program is a great opportunity for young boys to experience fun, adventure and good fellowship. "Scouting....the better life".
